

Seasonal Educator

This high school student will work with the Director of Education and Events, Youth and Outreach Coordinator and Education Intern. He or she will aid in the implementation of summer youth camps, school field trips, family programs, outreach opportunities, adult classes, events and tours. This individual's primary responsibility is to assist in programs where needed, working with a wide range of children and adults.

Moore Farms Botanical Garden is a nonprofit private garden set in rural Lake City, South Carolina. This dynamic 65-acre garden was established in 2002 and includes 24 different garden areas.

Desired qualifications:

We are seeking a student who is passionate about working with the community, being outdoors and has a strong willingness to learn. Must be able to lift 50 lbs. and work in a high-energy environment.

This position is intended to allow self-motivated high school students (Sophomore to Seniors) to explore an education career in a botanical garden. Experience working with children is ideal.

When offered: 2-month summer internship for 2018

Location(s): Southeastern US. Lake City, South Carolina 29560

Compensation: Hourly pay will occur at $8.25 per hour.

Work expectations:

- June: 5 days, 40 hours per week
- July-Early August: 3 days a week, 8 hours each day (Days will be selected once hired)

To apply: Submit a cover letter, resume and three references to:

Via E-mail:

Rebecca Turk

Director of Education and Events

Moore Farms Botanical Garden

Email: rturk@moorefarmsbg.org

Phone: (843) 210-7582

Please state interest in the seasonal educator position in the cover letter.

The goal of this program is to provide students with an understanding of the day to day operations of a botanical garden, focusing predominately on the education aspect. We also strive to prepare them for professional employment, to encourage creative and progressive thought and to ignite and inspire further passion for public horticulture. For more information view our website at www.moorefarmsbg.org.